1. Introduction

Leisure Suit Larry is an adult adventure game made by Sierra in 1987. Although the controls and graphics are very similar to other early Sierra adventures like King's Quest and Space Quest, the plot couldn't be more different. Instead of finding treasures and visiting distant worlds, the aim in Leisure Suit Larry is to help software salesman Larry Laffer find the woman of his dreams on his one night in Lost Wages. A warning at the start of the game states that this game is only for people over the age of 17, although by today's standards there is nothing too extreme in the game. Even so, the game is definitely intended for adults, and players who may not have liked the cute appearances and themes of other early Sierra adventure games may find themselves enjoying this game.

2. Walkthrough

LEFTY'S BAR

The game starts outside Lefty's bar. Open the door to enter the bar and sit at the stool between the people. Buy a glass of whiskey and Larry will pay for it. Stand up and walk north through the doorway to arrive in the hall. Give the whiskey to the drunk and he will give Larry a remote control. Get the rose on the table at the left side of the room. Open the door to enter the bathroom and get the ring from the sink. Read the graffiti on the wall four times to see three normal messages followed by the password 'Ken sent me'. Sit on the toilet and then stand. Open the door to exit the bathroom. Walk south to return to the bar. Knock on the door at the right side of the room and use the password 'Ken sent me' when the hatch opens. Larry will enter the bar's storage room.

The pimp refuses to allow Larry upstairs, so he will need to find some way to distract him. Use the remote control to turn the TV on. The soap opera doesn't gain the pimp's attention, so keep changing channels. Larry scrolls through advertisements, comedies, documentaries, sports shows and educational shows before finally finding an adult channel that makes the pimp leave his post. With the pimp out of the way, walk upstairs. Instead of using the arrow keys to walk up the second set of stairs, press the home key to walk diagonally.

Get the candy from the table at the bottom-right corner of the room, open the window and then climb through the window to exit the room. You don't need to talk to the woman on the bed yet, as Larry will be returning here later on. Outside, walk left across the fire escape to fall into the bin below. Get the hammer and then climb out of the bin. Walk west one screen to return to the entrance of Lefty's bar. Call a taxi and wait until one appears. Open the taxi door to enter the taxi and tell the driver to go to the casino. Pay the driver after arriving at the destination and then open the door to exit the taxi.

CASINO

Enter the casino and walk north one screen to the elevator room. Get the pass from the bin. Walk east to the cabaret lounge and sit on the bottom-right chair to find the whoopee cushion. Stand up. Exit the lounge and walk south to return to the casino. Put money in the bottom-left slot machine to start playing. Save the game and bet the maximum amount of money. Save if you win and restore if you lose. Keep playing in this way until you win $250, which is the maximum amount that can be won on the slot machines. Walk south to exit the casino and buy an apple from the man with the barrel that appears. If the man doesn't appear, exit and return to the area until he does. Call a taxi, open the taxi door and tell the driver to go to the shop. Pay the driver and open the door.

SHOP

Look at the phone to read some numbers on the side. Use the phone and dial 209-683-6858 to call a computer at Sierra. Dial the number on the side of the phone: 555-6969 to call the National Hot Line Sex Survey. Type any answer for the five questions that are asked. Enter the shop and get the magazine from the bottom-left shelf. Read the magazine to see the centerfold. Get the wine from the shelf at the back of the shop. Walk to the clerk and buy protection. He will ask questions about what lubber Larry would like to buy.

Answer smooth or libbed, colored or plain, lubricated or rough-cut, striped or plaid, and peppermint or spearmint for the questions. Larry automatically hands over $8 for the magazine, wine and lubber. Exit the shop and answer the ringing phone. The caller will repeat the answers that Larry gave to the sex survey. Wait for the drunk. If he doesn't appear, exit and return to the area until he does. Give the wine to the drunk and he will give a knife to Larry. He won't give anything away if Larry gives him money. Walk east one screen to the disco.

DISCO

Show the pass to the bouncer and he will let Larry enter the disco. Inside, sit on the chair opposite the woman and look at her. Look at her again in the close view and then give her the candy to make her smile. Give her the ring and the rose, and then ask her to dance. She is so impressed by Larry's generosity that she agrees. Stand up from the chair and walk onto the dance floor to start dancing. After the long dance scene, return to the table and sit opposite the woman again. Look at her and she will tell Larry that she wants to get married, but that she needs a hundred dollars to pay for the marriage. Give her the money and she will tell him to meet her at the Marriage Chapel near the casino in a few minutes. Stand up and exit the disco. Call a taxi, open the taxi door and tell the driver to go to the casino. Pay the driver and open the door.

CASINO

Enter the casino and either play blackjack or the slot machines to win at least $150. You can win money more quickly by using the slot machines as you can keep saving when winning and restoring when losing until you get the money. There is no point winning more than $125 at this point as Larry will soon lose it all. Exit the machine. Walk south to exit the casino and then walk east one screen.

CHAPEL

Talk to the man wearing the trench coat. He flashes Larry when he walks past but doesn't say anything at all. Open the door to enter the chapel and marry Fawn, the woman that Larry met in the disco. Fawn runs out after the wedding and tells Larry that she will meet him at the Casino Hotel's honeymoon suite. Exit the chapel and walk west one screen to return to the casino.

CASINO

Enter the casino. Walk north one screen and enter the elevator. Push button four on the control panel to ascend to the fourth floor. Knock on the door with the heart on it and Fawn will let Larry into the honeymoon suite. Turn on the radio and wait for the wine advertisement to be played. Fawn wants a bottle of wine, so open the door to exit the suite and push button one in the elevator. Walk south two screens to exit the casino. Call a taxi, open the taxi door and tell the driver to go to the shop. Pay the driver and open the door.

SHOP

Use the phone and dial 555-8039 to call the Ajax Liquor Store. Tell them that they should deliver wine to the Honeymoon Suite. Call a taxi, open the taxi door and tell the driver to go to the casino. Pay the driver and open the door.

CASINO

Enter the casino. Walk north one screen and enter the elevator. Push button four on the control panel to ascend to the fourth floor. Knock on the door with the heart on it and Fawn will let Larry into the honeymoon suite. Walk to the top-right corner of the bed and pour the wine. Get in the bed. After the scene has finished, Larry has been tied to the bed and Fawn walks out of the room with his wallet. Cut the rope using the knife that was given by the drunk. Get the rope and then open the door to exit the honeymoon suite. Push button one in the elevator to return to the first floor and walk south one screen. Larry had $10 that Fawn didn't steal, so gamble this on the slot machines to win at least $40. Exit the slot machine and exit the casino. Call a taxi, open the taxi door and tell the driver to go to the bar. Pay the driver and open the door.

LEFTY'S BAR

Open the door to enter Lefty's bar, which hasn't changed at all since the last time Larry visited. Knock on the door at the right side of the room and use the 'Ken sent me' password to return to the storage room. Walk up the steps to the hooker's bedroom. Stand at the south side of the bed and remove Larry's clothes. Wear the protection and then get in the bed. After the scene, remove the protection and climb through the window to return to the fire escape. A bottle of pills sits out of reach on the window ledge. Fortunately, Larry read the magazine from earlier, which has a handy hint about how to reach windows.

Tie the rope to Larry and then tie the rope to the rail. Climb over the rail and Larry will notice that he still can't get to the pills as the window is locked. Hit the window with the hammer that Larry found in the bin and then get the bottle of pills before climbing back over the rail. Untie the rope and walk over to the left side of the fire escape to fall back into the bin. Climb out of the bin and walk west one screen. Call a taxi, open the taxi door and tell the driver to go to the casino. Pay the driver and open the door.

CASINO

Enter the casino. Walk north one screen and enter the elevator. Push button eight on the control panel to ascend to the eighth floor. Look at Faith, the woman behind the desk at the bottom-right corner of the room. Give her the pills and she will leave the room to find her boyfriend, leaving the desk unattended. Look at the desk to see an unlabeled button. Push the button and the penthouse elevator doors will open. Walk into the right elevator to enter the penthouse. Go through the exit at the top-right corner of the room.

In the bedroom, open the closet door and get the inflatable doll. The doll is currently flat, so inflate the doll and then use it. The game refuses to let Larry do anything to the doll the first time, so use the doll again. After a short scene, the doll deflates and Larry follows it out through the penthouse to the rooftop garden. Get in the pool and look at Eve. You can talk to her a few times, but after a while she just waits to see what Larry wants. Give her the apple, and she will tell Larry to follow her to the penthouse bedroom. In the ending, she pats the bed and a series of fireworks appear on the screen.

Message: It appears that the hooker gave you a little more than you bargained for! While life may be possible, it is no longer worth living.

Animation: Fleas appear on the front of Larry's suit. After walking around for a few seconds, Larry eventually falls to the floor.

Information: Larry may not have the prophylactic the first time he enters the room, so ignore the hooker and return to the room later on.

Action: Walk into the mugger's alley.

Location: At the side of the bar, casino, chapel, disco and shop.

Message: Larry, when are you gonna learn to stay out of those dark alleys!!

Animation: The mugger walks toward Larry and a fight cloud appears. The mugger eventually walks away and Larry is left lying on the floor. A pit opens in the floor and Larry is sent to the underground workshop where he is replaced by a new Larry.

Information: The mugger is fast, but can be avoided if Larry quickly backs out of the alley. Set the speed to normal as soon as Larry enters the alley as this will give him more time to escape.

Action: Tell the taxi driver to go home.

Location: In the taxi.

Message: "Ok, buddy," says the cabbie. "But why would cha wanna go there?"

Animation: Larry is replaced by a new Larry in the underground workshop.

Action: Exit the taxi without paying.

Location: In the taxi.

Message: "Waddaya tryin' to do, peahead! You're not gonna stiff me, and get away with it!" "You'll not ride with me again!"

Animation: The taxi driver fights with Larry and then runs him over.

Information: Make sure that you have enough money before getting in the taxi.

Action: Steal an item from the shop.

Location: The shop.

Message: The clerk does not take kindly to your shoplifting. His shotgun makes a permanent impression on you. (And, IN you!)

Animation: The clerk turns and fires a shotgun at Larry. Larry is replaced by a new Larry in the underground workshop.

Information: Don't forget to pay the clerk before leaving.

Action: Get into the taxi with the bottle of wine.

Location: The taxi.

Message: The driver looks at you and says "Hey! What's that you got? Wine?" He grabs your bottle of wine, and guzzles it down! Hang on, Larry. He's swerving all over the road! It seems a bridge abutment has brought your game to a sudden stop! Remember, Larry: "Friends don't let cabbies drive drunk!"

Animation: The driver turns toward Larry as he talks. The taxi drives from one side of the road to the other until it crashes.
Information: The bottle of wine should be given to the drunk outside the shop.

Action: Get in the bed without the pocket knife.

Location: In the honeymoon suite.

Message: Since you have no way of cutting the ropes, and they're far too tightly tied for you to loosen, it looks like this is the end for you, Larry.

Animation: Larry remains tied to the bed.

Information: Larry should have given the bottle of wine to the drunk outside the shop before returning to the honeymoon suite to see Fawn.

Action: Don't remove the used prophylactic.

Location: On the street outside Lefty's Bar.

Message: "Caught you, pervert!" the cop shouts. "We don't like people exposing themselves around this town, especially wearing one of those!" Next time, if you insist on wearing your "lubber" in public, you should at least zip your fly.

Animation: Larry disappears.

Information: Sonny Bonds from the Police Quest series can be seen here. Avoid him by exiting the screen. If you remove the prophylactic in the same screen as Sonny, he will still arrest Larry.

Action: Lean over the rail.

Location: The fire escape in the alley at the side of Lefty's Bar.

Message: You lean far out over the railing before remembering that agility is yet another of your short suits.

Animation: Larry somersaults down to the ground.

Information: Tie the rope to Larry and the rail before leaning over.

Action: Eat the pills.

Location: Any location.

Message: Without thinking, you down the entire bottle. Hey, this stuff is ok! Your breathing becomes heavy, and you're suddenly extremely horny! You've just got to do something, and right NOW! Hey, where's that cute, black dog?

Animation: Larry disappears.

Information: Give the pills to Faith on the eighth floor of the casino.

Action: Don't complete the game quickly enough.

Location: Any point in the game.

Message: Oh, no! Stepping outside, you see the sun rising in the east. Glancing at your watch, you realize the terrible truth..... your night in Sierra World is over, and (technically speaking) you're still...a VIRGIN!!!

Animation: As the sun rises in the background, Larry puts a gun to his head.
