1. Introduction

Leisure Suit Larry 5 is the fourth game in the Larry series, for the simple reason that Larry forgot his fourth adventure and so it never existed as a game. Near the end of the third adventure however, Larry met a piano player named Passionate Patti. After falling in love with her, they ended up leaving each other near the end of the game. At the start of this game, Larry Laffer is working for PornProdCorp, a company that sends him off to find three beautiful women to star in a TV show. Passionate Patti has been hired by the FBI to investigate the activities of two music companies. Unknown to both of them is the fact that they are both working on similar tasks which may reunite them.
